

Christmas Services at the Catholic Church.

As usual the feast of Christmas will be celebrated with great solemnity at the Church of the Nativity. Following the privilege granted to the priest on this day three masses will be said. The first—common mass—will begin at 8 o'clock, followed by the mass of Thanksgiving. At 11 o'clock high mass will begin, at which Farmer's Mass in B flat will be sung by the full choir under the direction of Mrs. T. A. Rordan. Mrs. Lind will preside at the organ, assisted by Mr. Edwards as violinist. Special features of the musical program will be the "Adeste Fidelis" at the Offertory, "Oh, Holy Night" during the intermission and Rossi's "Tantum Ergo" during the benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament, which will follow immediately after mass. The reverend pastor will preach the Christmas sermon, and a cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend. In no better way can the day be spent than by devoting a portion of it to the contemplation of the great mystery of Christ's incarnation—His sublime act of condescension whose memories the season brings.

Christmas Eve at the Presbyterian Church.

The Christmas entertainment at the Presbyterian church will consist of a series of recitations and living pictures appropriate to the season. There will also be a Christmas tree and the usual treat for the little folks. The special feature of the celebration, however, will be the giving of gifts by the Sunday-school and its friends. All who can will bring books, either old or new, which will go to the hospital for a library. A money offering will be made and books and toys will also be received. A portion of the money will be used to purchase fruit for the patients in the hospital and the remainder devoted to the relief of any needy persons there may be in the community and to making Christmas pleasant for them. The service will be held at the church Saturday evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

Smallpox Preventive.

The following recipe for the cure and prevention of smallpox is going the rounds of the press. It is said to be infallible. Cut it out and paste it in your hat: One grain sulphate of zinc, one grain digitalis and one-half teaspoonful of sugar dissolved in four ounces of water. Dose one teaspoonful three times a day as a preventive. If taken when the fever first appears it is said to cure the disease. Dose the same as for preventive.
